RECUSAL ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT for its consideration is the Plaintiffs' Motion for Recusal Order of the Judges of Seventh Circuit Court District. The undersigned judge of this Court has never, in this or any other case, issued a ruling in exchange or consideration of anything (money or otherwise) other than the applicable law, all allegations to the contrary being belied by the record. However, to avoid even the suspicion of impropriety, the undersigned has entered orders of recusal on his own motion in all cases involving the parties and attorneys in this cause. No such order was entered herein because nothing is pending. The motion currently before the Court indicates the Plaintiffs' intent to file certain motions, but none have yet been filed. Thus, it appears the motion is premature as there is not yet any issue requiring adjudication by this or any other judge. Nevertheless, to continue to avoid even the suspicion of impropriety, the undersigned agrees to recuse himself in this cause.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the undersigned hereby enters his recusal in this cause, and directs the Court Administrator to so notify the other judges of this Court by copy of this order.

SO ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, this the 11th day of March, 2008.
